Educational System of APU

APU was founded in April 2000 in response to the demands of the global society in the 21st century. With 50% of its students and faculty coming from over sixty different countries, APU provides an ideal multicultural learning environment to its students.

In response to the demand for capable human resources with highly specialized postgraduate education to accompany society's continued advances, APU opened an international graduate school in April 2003.

Over 60 nationalities represented on campus

- Vibrant multicultural community
- Dedicated international faculty
- Asia Pacific focus

Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University

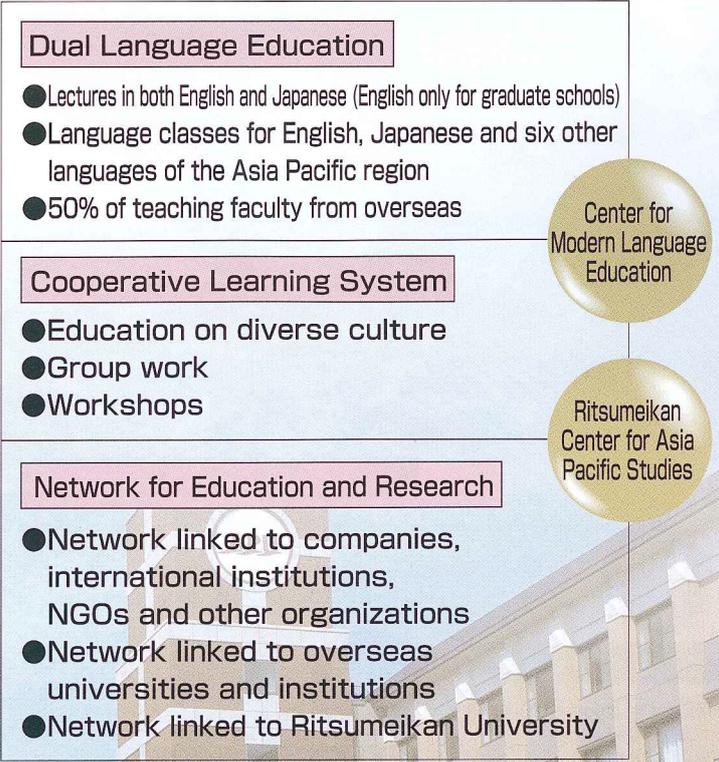

Undergraduate Colleges

- College of Asia Pacific Studies • Bachelor of Social Science
Students in the College of Asia Pacific Studies are able to acquire a thorough understanding of the Asia Pacific region as well as a high level of proficiency in two or more languages. Students conduct specialized study in the fields of 'development and environment', 'tourism in the Asia Pacific' and 'media', all of which are crucial to the region's development.
- College of Asia Pacific Management • Bachelor of Business Administration
In the College of Asia Pacific Management, students acquire practical management skills and learn how to strategically approach challenging issues. The curriculum, which stresses knowledge of the diverse societies, cultures and customs of the Asia Pacific region, includes specialized courses in the following three fields: 'marketing and corporate strategy', 'accounting and finance' and 'international business and comparative management'.
