

Security Sector Partnership between Japan and Indonesia in the Age of ASEAN Integration

Jun Honna

Faculty of International Relations

Ritsumeikan University

Faculty of International Relations
Ritsumeikan University

Today's Discussions

- Significance of Indonesia as the Largest Democracy in East Asia
- Importance of Security-Sector Cooperation for Our Bilateral Strategic Partnership
- Areas of Cooperation
- Deepening the Partnership

Indonesia as the Largest Democracy in East Asia

- Elections
- Security Sector Transformation
- National Stability
- Local Democracy
- From 'Crisis-Driven Reform' to 2nd Generation Reform
 - Judicial Sector Reform
 - Police Reform
 - Political Party Modernization

Significance of Japan-Indonesia Strategic Partnership in Political & Security Fields

- Goals

- ASEAN Community Building
- East Asian Community Building

- Priorities

- Consolidating Political Values
 - Democracy, Freedom,
- Consolidating Security Interests
 - Security of Maritime Asia

Security Sector Cooperation: Police

Security Sector Cooperation: Coast Guard

Security Sector Cooperation: SDF

Deepening Partnership

- Defense Cooperation as the Key for ASEAN Security Community Building
- Disaster Relief as the Key for TNI-SDF Leadership in Consolidating ASC
- Mutual Advances
 - SDF—Beyond the Past Legacy
 - TNI—Beyond Paradigma Baru